Among those in attendance upon the State Grange meeting held at White River Junction this week are Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Atkinson, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Peck, F. M. Small and C. W. Fitch.

A joint meeting of the Vermont Horticultural Society and Vermont Beekeepers' Association will be held at Vergennes December 17 and 18.
Reduced rates from Cambridge Jet.

H. Waite & Son are planning on doing a big poultry business for Christmas. They are shipping onions, honey, beans, maple syrup and sugar to different parts of New Hampshire and Massachusetts.

James Towne is once more Captain of the Standard Oil outfit, and is driving a handsome team. He has delivered, in the last seven days, 80 barrels of oil. "Jim" says he is "breaking them in easy."

Rev. I. P. Booth went to White River Junction to-day to attend a meeting of the Executive Board of the State Universalist Convention. He will also be in attendance upon the State Grange meeting held there this week.

Frank Rooney, began work in J. F.
Thomas' meat-market last week. He has been employed for several years in a St. Albans market and is a first-class meat cutter. He also has had considerable experience in the grocery business.

As is customary during the holiday season the stores will not close Tuesday and Thursday evenings at 6 o'clock, but will keep open to accommodate X-mas shoppers. They will all return to the regular order after the holiday rush.

The new sign over the City Bakery is quite in keeping with the many and modern improvements inside. Their delivery outfit shines with a new sleigh, new harness and, in fact, everything in connection with the business has a down-to-now appearance.

C. J. Slayton was confined to the house last week, suffering from the effects of a sprained limb and a lame back, caused by slipping on the icy sidewalk. His efficient clerk, D. C. Spaulding, had his hands full during C. J.'s temporary lay off.

Joshua Merriam has sold his farm on the river road, known as the Cousie Farm, now occupied by H. R.
Jones to G. H. Prior, the writings being made yesterday. Mr. Prior will not occupy the farm until next spring, when he will do a large gardening business.

Thomas J. Stewart returned to Montgomery last Saturday, where he began his second term as principal in the graded school there. The fall term is reported as being a very successful one. Mr. Stewart is a teacher of rare ability and keeps abreast of all the modern ideas.

FOR SALE.
Just in, a carload of No. 1 Sleighs. These sleighs are bought right and will be sold at rock bottom prices. Several horses, drivers and workers, now in my stable. Call and business there, for some time.

F. C. Peck, accompanied by the veteran lumberman Lyman Woodworth, expects to start for Sutton, P. Q., this week, where they will begin work at once in the new lumber territory recently acquired by W. W. Peck. Fred will have charge of that branch of the business.

Geo. H. Terrill, one of Morrisville's best farmers, is putting in a part of the time this month in assisting the Board at the agricultural meeting at various parts of the State.

George is a practical farmer and his talks cannot be otherwise than of benefit to the tillers of the soil.

The sale held in the Matthews building last week closed Saturday evening with very satisfactory results to those having the matter in charge.
The ladies of the Methodist church wish to thank all who were interested in the sale and for furnishing the articles, and to those who so generously patronized them.

A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Camp in Barre this morning, when their daughter, Miss Grace, was united in marriage to Alfred E. LeBourveau of that place. Miss Camp formerly resided in Morrisville with her parents.
She is an estimable young lady and has the best wishes of many friends here for her future happiness. The groom is a successful young business man of Barre, being engaged in the granite business there.

The application filed by Daniel C.
Spaulding for the position of carrier on the Rural Free Delivery route in the south part of the town has been withdrawn. This action was made necessary on account of the rule regarding the age limit, which provided that the applicant shall not be over 55 years old. This will be regretted by many as "Dan" is popular and would have made a good man for the place. He was the first to go over the route and to him is due much credit for interest taken in the matter. E. S. Robinson, who was to have been Mr. Spaulding's substitute, will undoubtedly be appointed.

Dodge-Carpenter.
A pretty wedding occurred at the home of Mrs. W. F. Whipple yesterday afternoon, when Miss Mable Carpenter of Elmore was united in marriage to Charles Dodge of this town. Bert Potter and Miss Ethel Guyer of this town stood up with the happy couple and the ceremony was performed by Rev. M. S. Eldy. Both parties are well and very favorably known here and are former students of People's Academy, the bride being a graduate in the class of 1901. After a short wedding tour they will return to Elmore, where it is understood they will reside.

J. M. Warner Post Elect Officers.
At the meeting of the J. M. Warner Post last Saturday night the annual election of officers occurred and resulted as follows:

Commander, A. F. Whitney; S. V.
Com., L. M. Maycott; J. V. Com., C.
A. Sanders; Adjutant, A. A. Niles; Quartermaster, Wm. McClintock; Surgeon, M. C. Mower; Chaplain, Austin Wilkins, Cady's Falls; Officer of the Day, S. D. Luce; Officer of the Guard, H. H. Goodell; Sergt. Major, Frank Knifield; Quartermaster
Sergt., Geo. A. Cheney; Delegate, Leonard M. Maycott; Alternate C. A.
Sanders.

Resignation of Rev. G. N. Kellogg.
Last Sunday morning Rev. G. N.
Kellogg, pastor of the Congl church here, surprised his congregation by reading his resignation, to take effect the first of next May. Mr. Kellogg completed seven years of service here the first of this month, and to say that it has been a faithful, conscientious service voices the sentiments of the whole parish. As a preacher Rev.
Mr. Kellogg ranks with the ablest in Vermont and as a citizen has a warm place in the hearts of the entire community. During his residence here Mr. Kellogg has taken a lively interest in the affairs of the town and has done much in behalf of good citizenship in this vicinity. His resignation is printed in full herewith:

MY DEAR PARISHIONERS:
Dear to me by the many memories and associations of the years during which we have lived and labored together as becometh servants of our Lord; sharing our mutual burdens and enduring our mutual short-comings.

For some time I have felt that a severance of our relations as pastor and people would be to our mutual advantage. I should have resigned some months ago had not circumstances, over which I had no control, constrained me to delay, and I now, for reasons which make it imprudent not to say impossible for me to contemplate removal before warm and settled weather shall have returned, ask that this, my resignation may take effect on the first of next May.

I present this letter at this time, first, because it is the first convenient season for doing so after the completion of my seventh year of service as your pastor; second that being advised of my wish before the opening of another calendar year you may be better able to shape your plans for the future.

Be assured that I fully appreciate your unflinching kindness to me and mine; and I tender my sincerest thanks to you one and all. Whatever my short-comings, known to myself quite as well and as sorrowfully as to any of you, I can say, with a good conscience, that I have ever striven in singleness of heart, to give you the best service of which I am capable, and I shall continue to do so during the remainder of my stay among you.

Again thanking you for your kindness and affection, and wishing you abundant prosperity, the choicest blessings of Heaven, the benediction of the Divine Spirit, I am most sincerely your servant in Christ.

G. N. KELLOGG.

An Enjoyable Meeting.
Last Saturday afternoon the Woman's Club met, by invitation, at the home of Mrs. Gled; the usual program was carried out. An interesting paper on the "History of the Present Government of Holland," was read by Mrs. J. A. Robinson. The regular meeting was followed by a short time spent socially, during which refreshments were served. The afternoon was much enjoyed by all present. The next meeting will be held as usual at the Library and all members are requested to be present, as important amendments to the constitution are to be considered.

W. W. Delano, who recently purchased the tea route of Clarence Thomas, has engaged Frank Cram to work for him four days in each week. Mr. Cram will make the out of town trips. Mr. Delano will take possession of the business the 15th of this month and will give his entire attention to the same. He has had a large business experience and we bespeak for him a good patronage.

HYDE PARK.
Additional Hyde Park news on page three.

Homer Calkins has graduated from Corrier's livery.

A. H. Keeler is setting up a furnace in St. Theresa's church.

Mrs. Wm. Thorpe has been quite ill for several days with an attack of the grip.

Dr. A. M. Goddard and wife of Albany spent Sunday here with relatives.

W. F. Benson, the hustler of the Pike & Benson firm of Stowe, was in town a short time Monday.

For late Chicago papers we acknowledge indebtedness to Isaac C.
Vaughan who is spending the winter there.

New England telephones have been placed in the residences of Glenn A.
Wilkins, F. L. Lilley and R. W. Hulburd.

ham, Edwin L. Sabin.

Postmaster Cheney of Stowe, had business with the Probate Court last Friday. "Bert" has considerable to do with settling estates of parties in his town. Thoroughly conscientious and level-headed he always acts wisely and satisfactorily with all cases with which he becomes interested.

Frank Sawyer has moved into apartments in the upper part of his residence and takes his meals on the European plan.

Miss Crandall of Burlington, who teaches music in the public school at Morrisville, has formed a class here and gives instruction weekly.

The posters for the Phoenix New Year's ball are from the News and Citizen establishment, where first-class printing of all kinds can be obtained.

Arthur Wood, who came here about a year ago, will move his family to St. Johnsbury next week, where he expects to find more remunerative employment.

Subscriptions are received at the Lamoille County National Bank for the McKinley memorial fund, which is to be used in erecting a monument at Canton, Ohio.

Denio, the wheelwright, is getting material together for making 500 of the famous Vaughn Horse Hoes. He expects to have that number ready for the spring trade.

Albert A. Spicer, who has been living with his daughter, Mrs. Fannie Bailey, at Yantic, Conn., died at that place Tuesday. The funeral will be held at the Congl church in this place Friday afternoon at one o'clock.
The burial will be at Hyde Park Plains.
